RECTOR'S RAMBLES

May has been a very musical month, from the concert after the Coronation to Eurovision and this month we will have Glastonbury Festival, followed by the annual Prom concerts next month. Some new music and some more familiar.

As a lover of all kinds of music, I find it particularly fascinating how our brain can often immediately remember lyrics of songs, or tunes we haven't heard for years, whereas we can regularly forget things like our computer passwords. It is not just that we remember them, but we can hear the artist or the orchestra in our heads, our brains really are amazing. So, I did a bit of reading up as to why we can recall songs in so much detail. Studies appear to have concluded that there are a few reasons. Firstly, music is linked to emotions and that makes it easier to recall. Secondly, if we like a particular piece of music, we tend to listen to it over and over again. Finally, listening to music is something that gives many of us pleasure and can release endorphins, unlike trying to recall a computer password which just releases frustration. Maybe that is the key, and we should set all our passwords to music!

I wonder what your favourite type of music is. I must admit to a very eclectic music taste, from classical to rock, and most things in between. You will also be unsurprised to know I love religious music in its many different forms. From choral evensong, when it is as if the music rises up and out of the church/cathedral to God, to listening to vocal renditions of the psalms, it can lift my moods and help me worship God.

The psalms are fascinating – they would have been learned as part of the oral tradition to be sung and repeated over and over again. There really is a psalm for every occasion, some are sad, some happy or celebratory, others are really, really angry. Thousands of years ago it appears that people learned that it was good to express emotions individually and corporately by singing psalms. Maybe we all need to recapture that ability, maybe that is what music does for many of us.

Whatever your musical taste, I hope you will find some music which inspires and moves you, and helps you express how you feel. Or some that you can sing along to at the top of your voice.

Rev. Chris

CROSCOMBE SENIOR CITIZENS' CLUB

For our April meeting, we had a talk on Medical Detection dogs, ones that seem to know when someone has a bad illness.

How did it start? It was set up in Buckinghamshire in 2007, when a dog discovered an illness, breast cancer, in a lady called Daisy.

We were shown a video explaining how dogs are trained. It takes about 2 years to train a puppy, and costs around £29,000. They use all kinds of dogs, large and small, that stay with incredible volunteers. The training is based on the dog's nose which has 300,000,000 sensory receptors to our 5,000,000 and are trained to home in on a particular smell.

All dogs have normal lives living in loving homes and our Queen Camilla is the patron.

It was a very interesting talk but I was just a little disappointed that so few people turned up to listen. Thank you to those who did.

It was set up in Buckinghamshire in 2007.

On June 15th, we are having our salad lunch with strawberries and cream followed by a singalong with Cathy and John. 12.30pm for 1 pm in the Village Hall. Visitors are welcome.

CROSCOMBE PARISH COUNCIL

We are now meeting every 8 weeks as part of the council cost cutting. However, extraordinary meetings will be held as and when necessary, for example, planning applications. These will be advertised on notice boards in the usual manner.

Our website has been updated by the new clerk, Joe McGhee, and will continue to be revised.

The Parish Plan is being reinstated but you do not need to be a member of this group to forward concerns or proposals either to the clerk or any council member. We would like to know your views on what the village needs are.

The traffic working group is being reformed and if you are interested in being a member OR if you have any concerns that you would like us to discuss then please contact myself, the clerk or the group organiser/chair, Kate Egan.

All councillor contact details and those of the clerk are on the parish website.

CROSCOMBE CEVA PRIMARY SCHOOL

This summer term Croscombe School welcomed Chris Partridge as its new headteacher. Chris is an extremely experienced headteacher who brings masses of enthusiasm and ideas with him. He is keen to foster the school's ties with the village community with the aim of developing a happy and thriving village school. Chris will continue to work at St Paul's school in Shepton which has been a real success story under his leadership.

If anyone has any school related questions, comments, ideas etc, please do contact Chris on chris.partridge@croscombestokefederation.co.uk . He is keen to hear from anyone with an interest in our village school within the community.

On Friday 5th May the school had its own Coronation Picnic to celebrate the coronation of King Charles III and Queen Camilla. Some amazing crowns were designed and created by the children, a draw for who would be King and Queen for the day was made and lots of traditional street party food was consumed.

PILTON CORONATION CELEBRATIONS

Thankfully the rain held off during events over a successful and convivial weekend, as the village came together for post-solemn Coronation ceremony celebrations. So many people to thank – a total of some 30 individuals and village organisations (therefore multiply numbers) all helped make it enjoyable. These included Pilton Players, the Bellringers, Pilton United FC who ran the bar (with the help of Jane and Pilton Club) the Sidetracks Band, led by former Piltonians Barry and Cynthia Taylor, Immence DJs from Shepton, Village Voices (x28) led by Harvey Brink. The double-act of Tina and Chris at Sunday's Church Service in the marquee created a relaxed occasion. Particular thanks to Pilton Co-Op for supplies, Pilton Show for loaning tables and chairs, to Wick Carnival Club for transport, haulage and clearance, to Philip Eavis and Living Homes and to GFEL for rubbish bins etc. and not least to Pilton Parish Council, to the Village Trust and to Kelly Sumner. We will post the full list on the village Facebook page.

A total of £458 was raised for the Disasters Emergency Committee, thanks to combined takings from Jo Leworthy's Plant Sale, donations for teas and cakes and the post-service collection.

BHOPAL MEDICAL APPEAL

Firstly, well done to John Shearlaw and his team for organising the great Pilton Jumble Trail.

Secondly, Jenny and I would like to thank everyone for their support for our stall, raising funds for the Bhopal Medical Appeal. From donating goods and money, to buying things on the day, you contributed enormously, and we are so grateful. We'd like to give special thanks to Maurice and Christine Davies and Annette Smith for donating their stall proceeds to us. As a result of your fantastic help, we have just sent off £650 to the charity! Sadly, the disaster in Bhopal, nearly 39 years ago, continues to create more victims, whilst the perpetrators sit remotely and deny responsibility. Thank you again for all your help.

PILTON HAPPY CIRCLE

The news was full of descriptions of preparations for the King's Coronation so Happy Circle members joined in and made crowns. Freda's craft cupboard must be full of treasures as she brought ribbons, 'jewels', stars, tissue, a multitude of items to decorate our regal headwear, though we doubted our efforts would ever feature in The Tower of London.

This year, we celebrated the Club's 43rd birthday with lunch at The Bell in Evercreech. Twenty-four members ate, drank, laughed, and enjoyed the gathering. The Bell did us proud.

PILTON PARISH COUNCIL

Parking

Could we kindly ask residents and their guests to be aware that they need to leave enough space when parking to allow for emergency services to pass them. You may be able to park but could an ambulance or fire engine pass you?

The three areas of particular concern are Shop Lane, Totterdown Lane (particularly on a busy night at the pub and Club), and Bread St.

At the Annual Council Meeting Cllr Sumner was voted in as the Chair for 2023/24 and Cllr Hollings as Vice Chair. The Annual Parish Meeting on 11th May was very well attended and a good discussion of the parish's needs was held after the half-time refreshments. Groups and council displayed their work on the wall and a booklet of reports from many Pilton community groups was available. Please note that the Council meeting of 7th June will be discussing priorities to bring to the first Somerset Council Local Community Network meeting that is expected to be held in the next few months.
